Director

Gina Osborn is a Native of New Mexico, where she earned both her B.A. and M.M. in Vocal Music. She previously taught at Western New Mexico University and New Mexico State University, as well as maintained a private voice studio in New Mexico, New York and Oregon. In addition to her teaching, Ms. Osborn has also had an extensive performance career that has taken her around the world singing operatic roles and concerts in England, Italy, Germany and New York City. Currently Ms. Osborn resides in Portland, OR, where she occasionally sings with two professional choirs: Portland Symphonic Choir, and Resonance Ensemble. Most recently, Gina was seen performing the soprano solo on Beethoven's 9th with the SW Washington Symphony. As a singer, Gina understands the importance of expressing oneself musically in an accepting space. As a teacher, she strives to create an environment where singers can express, explore and develop their passion for music. She is thrilled to be a part LCC's Music Faculty and envisions tremendous growth and success for the choirs in the upcoming years.

Accompanist

Kathy Jones, a well-known local musician, has been on staff for more than 18 years at Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Longview, where she is the Choir Director, Organist/Pianist/Keyboardist, Worship Leader, Worship & Praise Coordinator, and one third of a women's trio—Change of Heart. She works at R.A. Long High School accompanying the choirs and participants in solo and ensemble competitions. She began accompanying the LCC choirs in September of this year. Kathy has been a church musician since she was eleven, and became a full-time musician in 1989. She has performed for more than 42 years in theater, concerts, retreats and dinner shows, everywhere from Australia and New Zealand to cruise ships in the Caribbean. She played/sang for almost 15 years at The Oak Tree Restaurant in Woodland. Kathy has also performed with the SW Washington Symphony and was thrilled to be a guest conductor in October 2012! Music is a blessing and a passion for her and admits there are several thousand memorized songs in her head.

A FEW NOTES ABOUT SOME PROMINENT COMPOSERS

Rodgers (1902-1979) & Hammerstein (1895-1960) - After long and highly distinguished careers with other collaborators, Richard Rodgers (composer) and Oscar Hammerstein II (librettist/lyricist) joined forces in 1943 to create the most consistently fruitful and successful partnership in the history of American musical theatre. They wrote such hits as: Oklahoma!, Carousel, The Kind and I, The Sound of Music and many more.

Lerner (1918-1986) & Lowe (1901-1988) were an American duo which, together, created some of the world's most popular and enduring works of musical theatre, for both the stage and on film. The duo won many Tony Awards and Academy Awards, for such hits as Camelot, Brigadoon and My Fair Lady (which was the longest running musical of all time, until the record was broken by Webber's CATS).

Leonard Bernstein (1918-1990) was a conductor, composer and educator. His first big break was conducting the New York Philharmonic in 1943. He was one of the first American-born conductors to lead world-class orchestras. He also initiated a music education/outreach project called "The Young People's Concerts," bringing free, live orchestral music and music appreciation lessons to New York public school students. His most known compositions include: Trouble in Tahiti, Candide and West Side Story.

Cole Porter (1891-1964) composed about 300 songs, while still a student at Yale. He went on to study law and then music at Harvard. He made his Broadway debut with the musical comedy entitled, See America First. Porter wrote songs for several Broadway musicals and films, which led to a series of his own hit musicals, such as Paris, Kiss Me Kate and Anything Goes.

Andrew Lloyd Webber (1948- ) A British composer known for having created some of the most recognizable Broadway music of all time—from Cats to Evita to The Phantom of the Opera. Along the way, Webber collected a variety of honors, including knighthood, seven Tony Awards, three Grammy Awards and an Academy Award... to name a few.

Claude-Michel Schonberg (1944-) is a composer, librettist, and record producer who is one half of a hit songwriting team, with lyricist Alain Boubil, that is responsible for the theater smash successes Les Misérables and Miss Saigon. The duo teamed up in 1978 to work on the score of Les Misérables, which opened in Paris two years later. The original cast recording won two gold discs by 1981 and the Broadway production that followed earned two Tony Awards. The recent movie adaptation of this hit musical was a tremendous success and breathed new life into the old favorite.

John Lennon (1940-1980) & Paul McCartney (1942-) Pop star, composer, and songwriter John Lennon met Paul McCartney in 1957 and invited him to join his music group, which would soon be known as The Beatles. The two formed one of the most successful songwriting partnerships in musical history. The movie Across the Universe is a Pop-opera based entirely on Beatles songs.
