

Kurt Harbaugh

Kurt Harbaugh, director of the LCC Jazz Ensemble and LCC Symphonic Band, was raised in Kalama, where he began his musical studies at a very early age. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Music from Central Washington University in 1991.

Since then, he has worked in the music retail business, taught private music lessons and performed professionally throughout the local area.

Kurt is currently a full-time faculty member at Lower Columbia College, teaching Music Fundamentals, Group Piano, Jazz Band, Music Appreciation, American Music (on-line) and Percussion Ensemble. He also taught K-8 music at Longview-Kelso Adventist School and was a substitute teacher for the Kelso School District.

He has been Principal Percussionist with the Southwest Washington Symphony, Timpanist with the Columbia River Chamber Orchestra, Drummer for the Northwest Jazz Orchestra, and Percussionist for the Northwest Wind Ensemble and LCC Symphonic Band.

Harbaugh was the bandleader for Cabaret 2004, and has been a Co-Conductor for the Southwest Washington Youth Symphony and three Summer Orchestra camps. He plays in several other groups, performing jazz, rock, blues, bluegrass, country and reggae, and has appeared on several local recordings.

David Klander

David Klander is in his 15th year as Band Director at R.A. Long High School. Previously he was Director of Instrumental Music at Roseburg Senior High School in Roseburg, Oregon for 6 years.

He received his Master of Arts in Music, Bachelor of Music in Education, and his Bachelor of Arts in Music Performance from Washington State University. Bands under Mr. Klander's direction have received numerous awards in the marching, concert, and jazz idioms. He also directs bands at Monticello Middle School, and directs the NorthWest Jazz Orchestra, a local 16-piece jazz band.

Dave lives in Longview with his wife, Genevieve Schoenecker, and their two youngest sons. Their oldest son is studying music education at WSU.
