Procedure No. 101.1A Policy No. 100	Name of Procedure Governance and Administration Decision-Making Councils and Committees

Decision Making Councils and Committees

As noted in Administrative Policy 100, Section 100.8, a number of councils and committees are tasked with day-to-day functional responsibilities for the college. The Executive Assistant (EA) or designee for each area of the college has responsibility for maintaining appropriate documentation in the committee section of the faculty-staff website, located at <http://internal.lowercolumbia.edu/organization/committees/index.php>. The page for each committee should incorporate the following and/or include a link to by-laws or other procedural template that contains these elements:

1. Official name (list and display in main header of the official bylaws).
2. Mission and purpose (describe mission, purpose, function and/or objective of the group).
3. Governance (include statutes, collective bargaining agreements, council, committee, and/or person with responsibility for establishing and overseeing work of the group).
4. Authority.
5. Membership and leadership (include membership eligibility and determination, terms of service, procedure for filling vacancies, and duties and terms of service for chair and/or officer positions).
6. Meetings (specify meeting frequency and/or life span of task force).
7. Sub-committees (include any council, committee or task force that the group oversees).
8. Operating procedures.
9. Relevant accreditation standards, policies, and/or publications.
10. Minutes.
11. Process for amendment of by-laws.
12. Effective dates and change record.

All changes to by-laws and/or procedural templates shall be submitted to the appropriate vice president who will take them forward to the Executive Leadership Team to ensure compliance with relevant laws and regulations, accreditation or other external standards, and administrative policies and procedures.

New committees and/or councils must be approved by the president and/or appropriate vice president.
