Company Notes

Nolan Bumgarner. LCC student. I am working toward a degree in physical therapy. I love music and acting, especially with Don. Oh, and two words, apple fritters...there is fruit it that.

Scott Clark. LCC Graduate. I have been involved with theatre for 35 years, both acting and technical. In this show I work with my Favorite son, Corey Farmer. Enjoy the show? Cheerio and all that.

Robert Cochran. LCC drama graduate. I have gone from being a drama scholarship student who was cast in several plays to a behind-the-scenes guy where design and construction make me feel most comfortable.

Shea Colman. LCC Student. First college production, but i have been involved in theatre for four years. I love improv. When I was little I fell into a puddle and was transported to a parallel underwater universe.

Donald A. Correll. UW graduate. After more years than I care to think about, I think I am getting close to understanding what this theatre stuff is all about.

Skylar Cruz. Drama Scholar. I am enjoying stage managing and plan to have a career in the theatre. Once I do this, I will take 100 orphans to the stars and start a colony of space knights that will become the Jedi Order.

Corey Farmer. LCC Drama Student. I am the grandson of Don, making him part Time Lord. My 5th year at Center Stage and I am enjoying it. After the show Carl, Christian and I will journey to find my best friend Captain Sherlock.

Carl Jansen. LCC graduate. I have been tracking the rare Christian Womack, a task not for the faint of heart. Corey has steeled my resolve in this. Hence the presence of Christian in this play.

Diane Krane. Drama Scholar. I'm studying to be a high school teacher. I'm a full-time student, teach middle school theatre and work in registration. Look out Wonder Woman, I'm after your reputation!

Christopher Robinson. LCC music student. I am a musician with a passion for the fine arts. As an actor the physical expression of my character reflects the intimate relationship of the music that lives within me.

Mona Shipley. After performing in many community theatres, it is educational and fun to work at Center Stage. I love being mother to these wild college kids. Believe me, they've needed a mother!

Jennifer Cheney. LCC former student. I was once Lady Capulet. That's another story. I act, direct, design and build sets, and design and make costumes. My real love is lighting, which I have been too busy to pursue.

Christian Womack. LCC graduate. I return to Center Stage after four years of forced absence. This return was not welcome, and I have been a real headache. Enjoy the show. Also, Carl lies.
